Prof. (Dr.) Gurinder Singh Mann speaks on
"The Sikh Panth: Its History and Historiography"

Presided by
Prof. (Dr.) Arun K. Grover, Vice Chancellor, Panjab University

About the speaker:
Prof. Gurinder Singh Mann is currently the Director of the Global Institute for Sikh Studies, New York. He has taught Sikh Studies at Columbia University, New York (1988-1999) and was Kundan Kaur Kapany Chair in Sikh Studies at the University of California, Santa Barbara (1999-2015). He did his Ph.D in Religion from Columbia University in 1993. His publications include the Gobind Pothis (Harvard Oriental Series 51, 1996); The Making of Sikh Scripture (Oxford University Press, 2001); and Sikhism (Prentice Hall, 2004). His lecture will include a brief survey of existing scholarly literature on the subject through which Prof. Mann will analyze the significance of history in Sikh life, scrutinize and enlighten the audience about the tradition of history writing within the Sikh Panth, and conclude with a set of concrete suggestions for the new generation of scholars as they generate their own narrative of Sikh history, in the future.

Venue:
Dr. S. S. Bhatnagar University Institute of Chemical Engineering & Technology Auditorium, Panjab University, Chandigarh

Date: 4th December, 2017        Time: 03:00 pm

Kindly be seated by 02:45 pm and switch off your mobile phones during the lecture.

Contact
Prof. (Dr.) Promila Pathak, Coordinator, Colloquium Committee
E-mail: ppathak_2007@yahoo.com          Phone: 0172-2534018